

QQ13 English Literature and Linguistics

Programme structure(s) and requirements, levels and modules

Overall requirements for students entering in Year 1 of this programme in or after September 2015

You must take 120 credits in each year of study, meeting all programme and pathway requirements, and will only be able to progress to the next developmental year if you have met the progression requirements. To be eligible for the award of your degree you must have passed a minimum of 315 credits, including 90 credits at level 6.

You must take a minimum of 165 credits in English modules and 150 credits in Linguistics modules over the period of your studies. Some of these credits will be from compulsory modules, and some will be from optional modules within your subject areas which you can choose each year. You may also take up to 45 credits outside your subject areas in the course of your degree.

Students entering Year 1 in 2017-18 will be required to study at least one QMUL Model module in each year of study. In Year 1, the QMUL Model module(s) will be one or more of the core or compulsory modules associated with your degree. In subsequent years, you will be able to choose from a range of options.

The regulations below outline the requirements for which modules you have to take in each year of study, and what you have to achieve to progress to the next year.

Year 1 – Level 4

You must take the following 120 credits:

- 30 credits Reading, Theory And Interpretation (compulsory module)
