

P303 Film Studies

Programme structure(s) and requirements, levels and modules

Overall requirements for students entering in Year 1 of this programme in or after 2015

You must take 120 credits in each year of study, meeting all programme and pathway requirements, and will only be able to progress to the next developmental year if you have met the progression requirements. To be eligible for the award of your degree you must have passed a minimum of 315 credits, including 90 credits at level 6.

You must take a minimum of 240 credits in Film Studies modules over the period of your studies. Some of these credits will be from compulsory modules and some will be optional modules within your subject area which you can choose each year. You may also take up to 120 credits outside your subject area in the course of your degree.

The regulations below outline the requirements for which modules you have to take in each year of study, and what you have to achieve to progress to the next year.

Year 1 – Level 4
